1. What is your connection or interest in this case?*:
Protesting as a Duke Energy customer.

2. Please give a concise statement of your protest.*:

We are Duke Energy customers. We are also retired. Duke wants to increase our monthly bill by $15.57 per 1000 KW and increase the basic rate charge $28.00. Their profits are certainly great enough to cover re-investment costs in their own equipment, without taking advantage of retired people and the already stressed budgets of other residents. Any poor decisions they've made that have cost them a lot of money is on their heads - it certainly wasn't our choice. Let the CEO and other upper management people sacrifice their exorbitant bonuses, and take some pay cuts. Their pay is outrageous when compared to the monthly income of the average South Carolina resident.

3. Do you wish to make an appearance at a hearing in this proceeding, if scheduled, and offer sworn testimony?: No, we can't do it. Unfortunately traveling all the way to Columbia is not easy for us and would make the trip more difficult (and even painful) than we would be willing to do.
